

UTECH NORTH AMERICA 2020
WILL BE LOCATED IN CHICAGO
MAY 19TH – 21ST

UTECH North America will move to the Midwest for a three-day exhibition and conference at the Renaissance Schaumburg Convention Center Hotel just 15 miles from O'Hare airport.

Experience current technology from around the world, in all end markets from building and construction to automotive, furniture and more. All market segments are included from flexible, rigid and spray foams to coatings, elastomers and sealants, crossing every part of the supply chain.

With the move to Chicago, UTECH North America will introduce these exciting new features to the show floor: Ask the Expert, Innovation Gallery, web and mobile app that connects buyers and sellers, and many more!

The UTECH brand is recognized around the world as the premier Trade Show and Conference organizer for the international polyurethane industry backed by Urethanes Technology International, the only audited publication in the industry since 1984
